The policy aims to minimize the instances of customer complaints through proper service delivery and review mechanism and to ensure prompt redressal of customer grievances.

Internal procedures

A. If you want to make a complaint, we will tell you:

- i. How to do so.
- ii. Where a complaint can be made.
- iii. To whom a complaint can be made.
- iv. When to expect a reply.
- v. Whom to approach for redressal.
- vi. What to do if you are not satisfied about the outcome.

b. Our staff will help you with any questions you have.

c. We will tell you where to find details of our procedure for handling complaints fairly and quickly.

d. If your complaint has been received in writing, we will make sure to send you an acknowledgement/ a response within a week through letter/mail. If your complaint is relayed over phone at our designated telephone helpdesk or customer service number, we shall provide you a complaint reference number and keep you informed of the progress within a reasonable period of time.

f. After examining the matter, we will send you our final response within 30 days of the receipt of your complaint and will tell you how to take your complaint further if you are still not satisfied.

g. Within 30 days of lodging a complaint with us, if you do not get a satisfactory response from us and you wish to pursue other avenues for redressal of grievances, you may approach the Officer-in-Charge of the regional office of the department of Non-Banking supervision of RBI.

Mode of Complaints

Capital Float aims to provide the best customer service possible and is consistently striving on creating a robust and efficient customer service platform. We at Capital Float aim to delight our customers with our services.
